

DAVOS 2019

GLOBAL MARKETS FORUM:

Be at the heart of the Davos debate

@ReutersGMF | #EikonMessenger

Moderated by experienced Reuters journalists, join us in the GMF as we bring you to the heart of the Davos debate and on-location coverage of one of the biggest global events of the year.

From 22-25 January, 2019, the world's top leaders will once again gather at the World Economic Forum to discuss critical issues arising from Globalisation 4.0 and the Fourth Industrial Revolution. Together with industry experts and peers, we'll untangle some of these challenges, brainstorm our own strategies and share valuable takeaways to help you create an informed opinion on the future of the markets.
